PAROLE BOARD VICTIM'S LETTER #2

Dear _____:

You have advised the Department of Corrections you wished to be notified when _____ applied for discretionary parole. That is the purpose of this letter. The following information explains how you can provide information at the parole hearing.

1. Attached is a copy of the prisoner's parole application in which the prisoner gives his/her version of the "present offense," explains why the prisoner thinks he/she should be granted parole, where the prisoner expects to live upon release, what conditions might be helpful, and what problems the prisoner expects to encounter upon release.
2. The Parole Board members are interested in any comments you might have regarding:
 - a. The impact of the crime on you or your family;
 - b. Whether or not you think the prisoner should be paroled;
 - c. Any special conditions of parole, such as the prisoner not having any contact with you or your family. You are encouraged to send any documents in support of your comments to the institutional probation/parole officer at the address below as soon as possible so Board members can review them before the hearing begins.
3. By law, any written comments or documents you submit must be given to the prisoner; however, your address will not be disclosed to the prisoner. The hearing is tentatively scheduled to be conducted at _____ on _____. The hearing date and location could change. You should confirm this information with the institutional probation/parole officer.
4. If requested, you will be provided with the following information within a reasonable period of time after the Board makes a decision:
 - a. The Board's decision
 - b. Expected release date of the prisoner, if parole is granted
 - c. Expected geographic area of the prisoner's release
 - d. Prisoner's parole conditions
 - e. Location and address of the prisoner's parole officer.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact institutional probation/parole officer _____ at the _____ Correctional Facility, telephone number _____.

Sincerely,

ALASKA BOARD OF PAROLE
