Case Number

Per General Condition of Probation/Parole Number _____ understand that my region of residence is as follows:

I understand that I am free to travel within the above stated boundaries, and that should I wish to travel beyond my region of residence, I must receive prior written permission in the form of a Travel Permit from my Probation Officer. I further understand that my region of residence may be restricted or expanded by my Probation Officer at any time. Should any changes take place, my Probation Officer will provide me with written notification of these changes. To travel beyond the designated boundaries without permission may result in a Petition to Revoke Probation or a Parole Violation.
