

GENERAL CONDISTIONS OF PROBATION

1. Report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following the date of sentencing, or if the time is to be served prior to probation, report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following release from an institution.
2. Secure the prior written permission of a probation officer of the Department of Corrections before changing employment or residence or leaving the region of residence to which assigned.
3. Make a reasonable effort to secure and maintain a steady employment. Should you become unemployed, notify probation officer of the Department of Corrections as soon as possible.
4. Report in person between the first and the tenth day of each month, or as otherwise directed, to you assigned office of the Department of Corrections. Complete a full written report when your probation officer is out of their office to ensure credit for that visit. You may not report by mail unless you secure prior written permission to do so from your probation officer.
5. At no time have under your control a concealed weapon, a firearm, or a switchblade or gravity knife.
6. Do not knowingly associate with a person who is on probation or parole, or a person who has a record of a felony conviction unless prior written permission to do so has been granted by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections.
7. Make a reasonable effort to support your legal dependents.
8. Do not consume intoxicating liquor to excess.
9. Comply with all municipal, state, and federal laws.
10. Report all purchases, sales, and trades of motor vehicles belonging to you, together with current motor vehicle license numbers for those vehicles, to your probation officer.
11. Upon the request of a probation officer, submit to a search of your person, personal property, residence or vehicle in which you may be found, for the presence of contraband.
12. Abide by any special instructions given by the Court or any of its duly authorized officers, including probation officers of the Department of Corrections.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

The Court may, at any time, revoke probation for cause, modify the conditions thereof, and reduce or extend the period of probation. Furthermore, you are subject to arrest by the probation officer with or without a warrant.

I have read, or have been read to me, the foregoing conditions of my probation, and I fully understand them and agree to abide by them.

DATE: _____

PROBATION/PAROLE OFFICER

PROBATIONER