

Attachment A
Acceptable Facial Hair Standard

Moustache width can extend just past the corners of the mouth and just down to the bottom of the lower lip with mouth in the closed position. Hair shall not interfere with respirator facepiece seal area or internal valve function.

Hair on the chin (soul patch) width can not extend past the corners of the mouth and shall terminate above the bottom of the chin. Hair shall not interfere with respirator facepiece seal area or internal valve function.